We are an American company with administrative offices in southeast Florida. The company is registered with the French Government Tourist Office and is a Registered Seller of Travel, WST License #601 903 728. In accordance with state law, all monies you pay to French Wine Explorers are deposited into a registered trust account, and are used exclusively to pay actual tour expenses until your program is completed. French Wine Explorers is fully insured, carrying a $2 million professional liability/errors & omissions policy.

French Wine Explorers specializes in luxury wine and culinary vacations in France for an international clientele. Our programs are designed for wine enthusiasts of all ages and all levels of wine knowledge and experience. We also count wine and gourmet clubs and societies among our clients, as well as fellow wine and food professionals. All of our guides live in France and possess professional-level wine training and professional experience in the French wine business. As wine educators, we try to bring an educational element to our programs while keeping the atmosphere light and fun. Our primary goal is to make the world of French wine and cuisine accessible, understandable and enjoyable for our clients, while providing a relaxing, luxurious, and authentic experience of traveling in France.
