Serious oenophiles seek out Bernasse for her access to top winemakers, estate owners, and landmark private castles not open to the public. While best known for her ability to arrange private tastings at all five Bordeaux First Growth châteaux, at foremost dessert wine producer Château d'Yquem in Sauternes, and at the most legendary estates of Pomerol and St-Émilion, her reach in France's other wine regions is no less impressive (minimum price per day for two people: $1,250).
